

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

ACBSP REGION 10 ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2025

February 26 – March 2, 2025

S. P. Mandali's Prin. L. N. Welingkar Institute of Management Development and Research
(WeSchool), Mumbai

Questions related to the evaluator's training session

1. What is the evaluator's training?

A: The training will prepare evaluators for attending site visits and participating in the peer review process. The workshop will cover essential criteria within Unified Standards and the approach to Unified Tables and discuss the critical steps for preparing for a site visit peer review. It will emphasize effective communication with the team chair and institution, addressing specific requirements and requesting additional documentation. The importance of thorough preparation before the consensus call to ensure a successful site visit will be communicated.

Limited seats ! Register at the earliest*

2. Who can attend this training?

A: Only participants from ACBSP member institutions can attend this session.

3. Is it a paid session?

A: Yes. The fee for the session is USD 100. The fee can be paid during the online registration process on this website.

Questions related to paper track submissions

4. Will the abstracts be published?

A: Yes, all abstracts of full papers shortlisted and presented at the conference will be included in the conference proceedings with ISBN, which will be published subsequently.

5. Does acceptance for conference presentations guarantee publication?

A: All papers presented at the conference will be shared with the journals associated with this conference for further review for potential publication. However, the acceptance for conference presentations does not guarantee publication in conference-related journals as the publication will be determined by the respective journals' review process.

6. Should every author of a research paper fill out the submission form?

A: No. It is sufficient for only one of the authors of a research paper to fill out the submission form. Making multiple submissions of the same paper will create confusion.

Questions related to the School of Thought (business pitches)

7. What should I do to prepare for the School of Thought competition?

A: You need to have a business idea that is novel and demonstrates its potential impact on stakeholders. Additionally, the idea must be scalable. (Additional details regarding the submission requirements are available on this website).

8. What documents should be submitted?

A: The following documents are mandatory:

- A pitch deck (pdf format)
- An executive summary (pdf format)
- A competitive analysis (pdf format)

The following documents are optional:

- An introductory video (30secs max in mp4 format, & 100mb maximum size)
- Financial information

It would also be beneficial to demonstrate your product or service during the final round in Mumbai.

9. Is participation free?

A: Yes, participation is free. At least one member of your team must be from an ACBSP member institution.

10. How are the teams formed?

A: You must form your team based on your business idea. Just make sure one of the team members belongs to the ACBSP-member institution.

11. Who can participate?

A: Only students (undergraduate, postgraduate, or PhD) are eligible to participate.

12. Do all team members have to be from the same college?

A: Student participants can be from different colleges or universities. There has to be at least one member from an ACBSP-member institution.

13. Can I form a team with members from different educational backgrounds?

A: Yes, you can form a team that includes non-management students, as long as at least one team member is from an ACBSP-member institution. For example, if you have a business student and a computer science student on your team, you are eligible to compete.

14. Can I form a team with both undergraduate and postgraduate students?

A: Yes, you can form a team that includes both undergraduate and postgraduate students.

15. Will the presentation by the shortlisted teams be online or offline?

A: The presentations of the shortlisted teams will be offline and held at WeSchool, Mumbai.

16. Can I participate if my institute is not a member of ACBSP?

A: Yes, you can participate in the competition. However, at least one member of your team must be from an ACBSP member institution.

17. I want to participate but my institute is not an ACBSP member. How can I connect with ACBSP students who share my interests?

A: If you have a strong idea and need a team member with the required skill set, you may connect with ACBSP member institutes to find a member and then participate.

18. Can I participate individually?

A: No, you must participate as part of a team comprising two to three members.

19. Does my startup need to be registered, or do I need to have a final product ready?

A: Students can present their ideas, but having tested your product or service in the market will give you an advantage and demonstrate your entrepreneurial spirit.
